I am a motivated and detail-oriented recent graduate of Humber College's Millwright Mechanical Techniques program, with strong hands-on training in machinery installation, maintenance, and repair. I am skilled in using precision tools, reading blueprints, and following safety protocols. I am very eager to begin an apprenticeship to apply technical knowledge in a real-world setting, contribute to team success, and continue developing skills under experienced professionals. At every job I have been known for a strong work ethic, reliability, and a commitment to continuous learning.
