

THEOREN ASSELIN

MILLWRIGHT APPRENTICE

CONTACT

519-573-3368

Theoren.Asselin@hotmail.com

PROFILE

Dedicated and focused individual, who excels at time management. Proven ability to meet deadlines and work under pressure. Continuously eager to uphold safety standards while enjoying new challenges, expanding my knowledge of information and experiences while in an environment that embraces diversity and provides a warm welcoming team culture.

SKILLS

WHMIS

4 Step safety

Rigging Hoisting Hand Signals
Communication

Strong mechanical aptitude

Strategic thinking

OFW, OFB, OFC, SMAW, GMAW

First Aid certified

EDUCATION

Conestoga College

July 2024

Industrial Trades Pre apprenticeship 18 week program

EXPERIENCE

First year millwright apprentice: J.P custom services

May 2025-Current

Assisting journey persons with installation, alignment, and maintenance of industrial machinery. As well as performing basic mechanical repairs such as belts, pulley, chains and lubricating machinery. And welding.

Millwright Pre apprentice: Tri- Mach TMG Group

January 2024-May 2025

Completed a rigorous 3 month pre apprenticeship, covering class room as well as on site hands on experiences. Tig welding and pipe installation experiences and heavy machine operating experience.

Commercial Heating systems removal: CDR Removals

January 2023-January 2024

Assisted in the tear down and removal of commercial heating system units and using the appropriate equipment such as oxygen acetylene torches to cut and disassemble water storage tanks, furnaces and large commercial boilers in a clean and safe manner.

Industrial racking installer: J1 installations

June 2021- January 2023-

Assembling and disassembling industrial and commercial racking systems to the specifications engineers had given in blueprint. Often working on solo tasks and as a team such as using rigging and josting hand signals during the movement of large machinery and material.