

Neil Taylor

Fort Erie, ON
neiltaylor2895@gmail.com | 289-303-7269

Objective

Motivated and mechanically inclined professional seeking a Millwright/ Machinist Apprenticeship Sponsorship to develop technical skills in equipment maintenance, troubleshooting, and repair. Five years of hands-on experience maintaining industrial bakery machinery, with a strong focus on safety, efficiency, and mechanical reliability.

Relevant Experience

Sanitation / Maintenance Worker

Rich's Products – Fort Erie, ON

January 2019 – Present

- Disassemble, clean, inspect, and reassemble production machinery including bread dividers, conveyors, and ingredient pumping systems.
- Perform minor mechanical repairs and report equipment wear, leaks, and performance issues to supervisors.
- Collaborate with maintenance staff to ensure production equipment remains in proper working order.
- Operate and maintain cleaning systems, valves, pumps, and conveyors safely and efficiently.

Education

Advanced Filmmaking – Documentary | Television Broadcasting

Fanshawe College | 2015 – 2016

Fanshawe College | 2013 – 2015

Skills

- Mechanical Assembly & Disassembly
- Preventive Maintenance
- Equipment Troubleshooting
- Industrial Cleaning and Safety
- Lockout/Tagout Procedures
- GMP / HACCP Compliance
- Machine Operation and Inspection
- Forklift & Pallet Jack Operation
- Team Collaboration & Communication

Career Goals

Pursuing certification as an Industrial Millwright (433A) / General Machinist (429A) through apprenticeship training. Dedicated to developing expertise in mechanical systems, hydraulics, pneumatics, and industrial maintenance to support Ontario's manufacturing and production industries.